Our Next Function

Tour of The Yorktowne Hotel project

October 19, 2018

5:30 PM

The Yorktowne Hotel has been a cornerstone of downtown York since 1925, and embodied a sense of progressiveness and momentum that characterized a City on the move when it opened. The 11-story building was designed in Renaissance revival that reflected the vivacious spirit of the 1920s with 20-foot-high ceilings and ornate décor

The York County Industrial Development Authority (YCIDA) announced on January 5, 2016 that it finalized the purchase of the historic Yorktowne Hotel. The purchase of the hotel was the first step in a strategic plan to redevelop the property into a mixed-use building.

Join us on October for a tour of the project. Dinner will follow at the White Rose Bar and Grill.

Cost - $15 for members, $20 for guests.
Menu -New York Strip Steak, salad, coffee/tea/soda.
There will be a cash bar
